'Outline of History' at Ball
for Mineola Home—Other Personals.

ELEVEN of the famous women in history, from a Babylonian Queen to the present day, in appropriate costumes, will be presented in "Outline of History," which will be one of the features of the "Vanity Fair of 1922" to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria on the evenings of December 26 and 27 for the benefit of the Mineola Home and Cardiac Classes of the Public Education Association of New York. The production, in charge of Mrs. Frederick Greenbaum, will be under the personal direction of Mr. Sigmund Romberg. Mr. Chamberlin Dods has charge of the interior decorations, and Miss May Leslie of the dance numbers. About sixty debutantes and young matrons will take part. They will include Miss May Nathan, Mrs. Allan Arnold, Mrs. Martin Beck, Mrs. Edwin Vogel, Mrs. Walter Rosbach, Miss Priscilla Mitchell, Mrs. Alfred Nathan, Jr., Mrs. Hans Stroock and Mrs. Paul Rosenblatt.

Mr. Charles Mills and Mr. Alfred Nathan, Jr., are responsible for the music and lyrics. The program will be brought to a close with a miniature performance. Boxes may be obtained from Mrs. Clarence Muller, 270 Park avenue, and tickets from Miss V. D. H. Furman, at 250 Park avenue.

The annual fair of the Mount Morris Baptist Church, Fifth avenue and 15th street, under the auspices of the Women's Benevolent and Missionary Society, will be held during the coming week on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Frank Deacon, president of the Ladies' Society, is chairman.

This fair is always an event of great interest to the people of Harlem, as the ladies are very ingenious and original in their methods of adding to the usual fair attractions. All articles exhibited are for sale and are marked at very reasonable figures. A real old-fashioned Mount Morris market will be held on Wednesday and Thursday at 8:30. The new pastor of the church, the Rev. C. Weston Smith, hopes at this time to largely extend his acquaintance among the people of Harlem.

Alumnae Plan Dance.
The alumnae of Mount St. Mary's, Plainfield, N. J., will hold its annual supper dance at the Waldorf-Astoria on Friday evening, January 5. This particular event should have the support of the friends of the college because the proceeds will be devoted to the enlargement of the college library. Miss Irene Smith, president of the alumnae has general supervision of the arrangements.

The Federation for Child Study will have a very interesting offering for its Christmas entertainment. They are giving the children of New York the opportunity to hear Thornton W.
